ABOUT THE BLOG

Sustainably Savvy is a website focused on Green Living, Health and Beauty.

Sustainably Savvy is home to the "What's In My Makeup?" Series which dives deep into a review of the ingredients found in beauty products. In an effort to educate fellow women and beauty-enthusiasts who may not know about the various chemicals found in their makeup products.

The website also features topics, like switching to a more green and healthy lifestyle through mindful choices.
